As-salaaamo alaikum boys and girls!

Eid ul-Fiṭr Mubārak! Today marks the end of the holy month of Ramaḍān. Even though the month of Ramaḍān has ended, we should not stop doing good deeds. Imām ʿAlī (ʿa) has said, "Everyday that you do not commit a sin is considered an eid." So let us celebrate today with our loved ones and continue to live every day like it is eid.

Remembering Imām Mahdī (ʿaj)

It is especially important to remember Ṣāḥib az-Zamān, the living master, on Eid. How can we remember him?

Thankfulness

The month of Ramaḍān was filled with blessings. What are you thankful for?

Who Can I Pray For?

One important act we should do on Eid is remember our marḥūmīn, those loved ones who are no longer with us. We can do this by reciting a Sūrah al-Fātiḥah for them. It is also recommended to visit their graves if possible. Who are you remembering today? Connect the dots as you recite Sūrah al-Fātiḥah for the marḥūmīn.
